“ Bobby has taught me much over the past 9 years about our Smith family. He has shared stories told to him by his grandfather that has helped to close several gaps in the family ancestry. But primarily, I came to know Bobby as one of the best friends one could ever hope to have. I mourn this loss and will miss him greatly, especially each September.

“ Bobby was a Brother in Christ, a real good friend and Fellow Brother of the Brush. I have spent hours just listening to the tales he has spun. He will be deeply missed at church and in my heart.
