“ It is with great sadness and shock that I learned of Ted's passing. I knew him at a much better time when he was part owner of the Outloud bookstore on Church St long ago. I often saw his ready smile and his willingness to help others. He always treated me with respect and kindness. As he moved outside of Nashville, I saw him on rare occasions, but when we met, it was joyful. I offer my condolences to all who knew and loved him. His bright light is extinguished, but the memory is steadfast. Goodbye my friend...

“ Teddy you will be truly missed by your family and friends. Marc and I always loved you so much. My heart has a missing piece. You were such a kind, caring and loving person. I just can't imagine life without you. You are in gods hands now, rest in piece. Love you always

“ I have only happy memories with Teddy. He was a friend in high school and we always found something fun and "risky" to get into. He was such a kind soul with a huge heart, his early departure is so very sad. May he rest in peace and spread some happiness and excitement in the afterlife!
