“ I really cant believe she is gone.. my beautiful sister, Amber. I first met her when i was 12 i believe. Came home from school one day and there she is sitting in our family room. I had no idea who she was, until our dad told us she was our sister..what a shock! Turns out she had been looking for her birth father, James Daily, for a long time. Although strange at first, it was a shock as well to learn that we had another sister, as well as a nephew! Amber, that us one memory that is etched in my memory forever..ill never forget that day. I miss you so much..i never thought id feel this way, but i am grateful you came into our lives when you did bc we had the times of our life when we were together..memories & times that ill carry for the rest of my life. I love & miss You so much. Its not goodbye, its ill see you later. ily..
