“ Laura , there are no words that can comfort you right now . my heart breaks for you, there is nothing in the world that compares to the loss of a child. Just know that you have family & friends who will be there for you when you need them. the road ahead of you is going to be a rough one. there will be times you will not want to talk ...or even see anyone. But there will be days that you will need to talk to someone. Just know that i am always here if you need me. may God see you & your family through this very difficult time. remember i'm here if you need to talk.
