“ My heart goes out to the Barber family, but I also rejoice with them that they know that Mrs. Barber is whole again. I didn't know Mrs. Barber, but I do know her grandson Jerrie Wayne. The devotion, love, and time that Jerrie Wayne and his family have shown for Mrs. Barber is a testimony on what a wonderful woman she must have been. Jerrie Wayne, his wife and children have all made sacrifices to make sure that Mrs. Barber was properly taken care of. It is such a blessing to see that the sanctity of family still resides among us. Thank you Jerrie Wayne, and all, for being that example and that light. In His Love, The McEntire's

I remember back in the 60 my husband was a young preacher, and had preached there in the county, she had us go home with her and Mr. Barber, Jerrie and Gail were there. We enjoyed it very much her and Mr. Barber made us feel at home.
