“ Asa was definitely a joy to be around! ASA GREW TO BE LOVED BY THE ENTIRE FAMILY, even my kids loved them some Asa. One thing about Asa he was going to talk about his music and his jewelry and his shoes if he didn't say nothing else. I can hear him now “look Niesha, you like my new chain” “I'm going to the studio”. A beautiful, easy going soul that'll definitely be missed. Rest easy Asa!

“ Irene, LT and Tayla, I am so sorry. Asa was so sweet and loving. He was so excited about his music. There was a time when he and I went some place - of course I don't remember where - and he brought his rap mix tape with his songs on it. We played it. He was telling me about going to the studio and he was so excited and happy to be doing that. On other occasions he would do a few impromptu rap lines for me. Music is such a beautiful gift from God and Asa loved to share it with everyone. He will truly be missed. I don't think you know this, but Tom loved talking with Asa. One time when we were down there, Tom and Asa were out on the porch. Tom laughed a little after they were outside talking and said, "Asa can talk." It was a good thing. I have no doubt that Tom was guarding the gates of Heaven and greeted Asa as he walked through those gates. Asa is surrounded by those who love him in Heaven (Ru too) and sharing his music. We will miss his physical presence here, but he will always be in our hearts.

“ Asa stories about dreams when he make it big in his rap career and all his jewelry and fly wardrobe kept me laughing a smile on my face as I think of him from the bowling alley to the restaurants vacations smoking his girlfriend holidays shopping church birthdays and helping us move and more I'll cherish the memories he made with my family He was truly a kindhearted friendly cheerful person with everyone for Asa it's with a sad heavy heart I say RIP. Debra or Jean he called me both💙

Last year I was in Tennessee visiting for Thanksgiving and Asa was there as well. He really loved his music and his shoes! We had a great conversation about how he was going to make it big in the music industry and what his future was going to be like. I enjoyed my conversation with him and glad I was able to be there to see him. Rest in Peace, Asa.

“ I hadn't gotten to see Asa for several years, back before Covid, but I remember him always ready to tell a joke and drop some bars. Such a cool guy to be around. I still can't wrap my head around the fact that he's gone. My condolences go out to Asa's family and the Lockett's and to everyone who had the pleasure and joy of knowing Asa.
