“ Dear Family, Just a note to let you know WE CARE. May the Lord now begin the process to heal your hearts as you travel on a grief journey for a ways. Just wanted to send along a beautiful passage that may help. May the Lord bless you and keep you! Eddie Rogers, Chaplain THE INVISIBLE CHORD---We are connected, my child and I by an invisible chord not seen by the eye. It is not like the chord that connected us till birth. This chord does its work right from the start. It bonds us together. Attached at the heart I know that it is there. Though no one can see the invisible chord From my child to me. The strength of this chord, it?s hard to describe, it can?t be destroyed. It can?t be denied. It is stronger than any chord man could create, it withstands the test, can hold any weight. And though you are gone, though you are not here with me, the chord is still there, but no one can see. It pulls at my heart. I am bruised. I am sore. But this chord is my lifeline as never before. I am thankful that God connects us this way, A mother and child--death cannot take it away! (by Allie Zelinski).

“Buddy, I am so sorry about little Ashton. He, being my brother Tarzan's step grandson, makes him my step great nephew. I really hate that you have to go through something as difficult as this but I hope you can find some comfort in knowing there are people who care. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Linda K.
