Barry Vincent McNabb

November 19, 1955 - May 7, 2018

On Monday, May 7, 2018, Barry Vincent McNabb passed from this life at St. Thomas Hospital in Nashville, TN in the arms of his loving wife. He was 62 years old. Barry was a lifelong resident of Centerville, TN.

Barry is survived by his devoted and loving wife, Susan Atkinson McNabb of 41 years; his children Nicholas (Amanda) and Lindsey (Scott); his grandchildren Lily (Nicholas), Knox, and Sloan (Lindsey); his step-mother Sue Gordon McNabb; and his sister Karen McNabb Johnston. He is preceded in death by his father, Austin P. McNabb; his mother, Martha Emma Springer McNabb; and sister Shelia Doreen McNabb.

Barry was born on November 19, 1955, in Centerville, TN. He spent the majority of his working career at Universal Fasteners/YKK, working there for 31 years. For the past 10 1/2 years, he has served as Captain over Corrections at the Hickman County Law Enforcement Center. Barry was always a hard working man and was loved deeply by all of his co-workers.

In 1971, the love story of Barry and Susan began. Throughout their life together he always wanted to take care of Susan. He loved cooking for her really because he enjoyed watching her eat. They were married in 1976 and began a family in 1980 with the birth of their son Nicholas. Just two and half years later, in 1983 Lindsey was born and completed their family. Barry loved his family and supported them in every way.

Barry loved to be outdoors. He was proudest of his trophy deer and fish mounts. He was a good hunter and fisherman and had countless fishing partners. He had just started to consider buying a boat and start fishing again.

Barry had countless friends who have been so supportive during the time before and after his passing. On behalf of his family, we would like to extend our heartfelt love and gratitude for your love for him and support for us.

A memorial service is scheduled for him on Thursday, May 10, 2018, 3:30pm at the McDonald Funeral Home in Centerville, TN.
