“ Deepest sympathy on the loss of a man who epitomized the True Southern Gentleman. It's been almost 20 years since I saw Mr. Moore but I still remember his genuine kindness. His smile lit up the room and made me welcome, when he hardly knew me. My understanding is that he wasn't just that way with me, but with everyone, and that means that many more people who will miss him. God Bless you all, and may He put peace in your hearts that someday we'll all meet again.
