“ Mrs. Binkley was an amazing woman! She quilted at least one dozen picture quilts for us. She was a very hard worker. She will always have a special place in our hearts for her. We loved driving from Columbia to Primm Springs to drop off and pick up our quilts. We miss you and God bless you! Mary and Don Anderson

“ My Aunt Bootsie, as we called her, was my Mom's baby sister. I knew she was a strong woman. She came from a family of strong women. She raised my 5 cousins alone with the help of family & friends. I remember her making doll clothes for one of my dolls. She was there for me when I lost my husband. I will miss her very much. Even though we didn't see her often we always knew she was a phone call away. I'm going to miss her.

Beulah was amazing lady. I had the privilege meeting her with my mother Mildred Martin. She hand quilted many quilts for us, it was an honor to call her my friend.
