“Mattie and our family thought highly of our brother-in-law Billie for many-many years and planned (with our two sons) to attend all events related to his passing. However, because of hopefully a minor mishap while getting in the truck for the very first visitation, we were unable to attend anything. So regretfully we missed seeing all of his many friends. --

I (Joe) spent many hours at the store with Billie in our retired years hashing and rehashing history. And I can tell you-- if you were one of the 26-math class attendees at SG school with Billie in the late 1930's when 6 passed and 20 failed, Billie could pretty well name each one and their class status. -- Billie was truly a people person and will really be missed. -- His reputation by all was being a very hard-working farmer from the (Mules and the Tobacco) to the (Tractor and the Setter). What better reputation could a person age almost 97 have? Make the mules in heaven behave and follow instructions Billie. You were a good one,

“ It is hard to imagine Shady Grove without Billie Church. He, Alma, Doug, and Ruby have been strong community supporters for many, many years. Hearing that he was driving a tractor even after someone would have to place him on it was an amazing story of a man who did not want to give up. His friendly smile and stories were always delightful.

Please accept our sincere sympathy in the loss of this fine man.
