“ Dearest Brandon: I am offering up a prayer for you today. It has been 13.5 years, although sometimes it can feel like yesterday, since we lost you. I know in that moment before you passed on, you saw the light of Jesus's face and chose Him for eternity. You were always so faith-filled. I pray that you look down on those who were left behind and watch over us, as we still walk this mortal journey. You are loved. - Your Katie

“ Dear Brandon, while it seems some people have moved on, you are never gone from my heart. Happy almost 11 year heavenly birthday. "Don't you wanna stay here a little while" is still our song. Never far from my thoughts. Love, KR

“ Brandon,

I feel sad for what happened to you. I am disappointed that this was in God's plan for you and for those who loved you. I thought you were a kind person to us. I looked up to you as a father figure. It has taken my Mom and me a long time to be able to begin to heal from the loss of you. I hope you are with the angels. I will never forget about you. I still cry and so does Mom.

We both pray for you.

“ Brandon,
I think about you each and every day. I wanted to tell you that you always remain in my heart. I finally am beginning nursing school that you and I talked about so much. I know you already know all of this but I wanted you to know I love you and I miss you. I will never forget our time together.

*Love,
Katie*

“ Our heartfelt thoughts and prayers go out to all of Brandon's family. We lost our only child, our daughter Jennifer age 30 on Christmas day 2005, and we know how much pain you are all in at this time of loss. There really is nothing that anyone can say that will ease the pain you are feeling right now. We want to extend our hugs and shoulders to cry on and want you to know we are here for you. Please feel free to call us at 931 242-8199 if you need to talk with us so that maybe we can give you our support and love. God Bless you all. The Segraves, THCC.

“ Patsy and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Brandon. Please know that we are remembering you and honoring his memory. Words seem terribly inadequate to express the sadness we feel for the loss of this beautiful child. I pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey of grief. We send you thoughts of comfort and heartfelt sympathies during this difficult time. We love you! Peace, Prayers and Blessings, Tracie, Linda and Janie “ Cowboy's Prayer (Written for Mother) Oh Lord, I've never lived where churches grow. I love creation better as it stood That day You finished it so long ago And looked upon Your work and called it good. I know that others find You in the light That's sifted down through tinted window panes, And yet I seem to feel You near tonight In this dim, quiet starlight on the plains. I thank You, Lord, that I am placed so well, That You have made my freedom so complete; That I'm no slave of whistle, clock or bell, Nor weak-eyed prisoner of wall and street. Just let me live my life as I've begun And give me work that's open to the sky; Make me a pardner of the wind and sun, And I won't ask a life that's soft or high. Let me be easy on the man that's down; Let me be square and generous with all. I'm careless sometimes, Lord, when I'm in town, But never let 'em say I'm mean or small! Make me as big and open as the plains, As honest as the hawse between my knees, Clean as the wind that blows behind the rains, Free as the hawk that circles down the breeze! Forgive me, Lord, if sometimes I forget. You know about the reasons that are hid. You understand the things that gall and fret; You know me better than my mother did. Just keep an eye on all that's done and said And right me, sometimes, when I turn aside, And guide me on the long, dim, trail ahead That stretches upward toward the Great Divide.
