Brenda Kay Harrington, of Centerville, Tennessee, departed this world on December 25, 2023, in Columbia, Tennessee, finally finding peace after a prolonged illness. Born on December 21, 1954, in Dickson, Tennessee, Brenda lived a life filled with love, resilience, and unwavering dedication to her family.

Brenda was the daughter of the late Jesse Rannic Myatt and Margaret Stevens Myatt.

She is also preceded in death by her sister Marjorie Jane Northcott.

She is survived by her devoted husband of 16 years, Larry Harrington, who tirelessly cared for her throughout her illness. Her son, Casey Bates. Daughter, Stacey Davis. Stepson, Derick Harrington. Stepdaughter, Christy Stanich. Siblings Janet Martin, Betty Banks, Julia Morgan, Sue Banks, Charles Myatt, Jerry Myatt, and Nancy Myatt. Her best friend, Ann Capps, who was a constant source of support throughout her illness and shared many cherished moments with Brenda. Along with many other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

Brenda's heart was also touched by her precious fur baby, Sadie, who brought joy and companionship into her life.

Known for her love of life, Brenda found joy in quilting and spending quality time with friends and family. Larry affectionately called her "Baby Doll," a testament to the deep connection they shared. Brenda was a faithful member of the Five Points Church of Christ and attended when she was able.

She was a wonderful mother to her children. Brenda's strength and determination were unparalleled. We had a lot of good times together that I will always cherish. Even though we haven't seen each other in years our hearts stayed connected. “ Prayers for Brenda's friends and family. She and Larry were the best neighbors for almost 39 years. We shared food, love & laughter. My granddaughters lived visiting Ms. Brenda and giving her hugs and love. We always prayed with her. I miss her so. My heart hurts for the kids but rejoices because she is no longer in pain and got to see Jesus on His birthday. I love you Brenda.
