

Carl Arnold Tidwell

April 1, 1951 - March 1, 2025

Carl "Arnold" Tidwell, age 73 of Centerville, Tennessee passed away at his home on March 1, 2025. Carl was born in Dickson, Tennessee to the late Jimmy and Dorris Pendergrass Tidwell on April 1, 1951.

Carl was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend. He lived a life filled with love, laughter, and cherished traditions. Carl was a dedicated Tennessee Titans fan. Win in or lose, he cheered them on with loyalty often alongside his brother Elvis. Football was more than a pastime; it was a passion he shared with those closest to him.

When he wasn't watching the Titans, Carl found joy in life's simple pleasures. He loved rolling grape vines, a tradition that brought him happiness and plenty of stories to tell. Time spent with his siblings was always treasured-whether reminiscing about old times or making new memories, his love for family was the heart of who he was.

In addition to his parents, Carl is preceded in death by his son Sammy Tidwell, siblings, Charles Tidwell, Ethel Lampley, Shirley Lampley, Alvie Prince, Leon "Hickey" Tidwell, Edna Fay Himes, Elvis Tidwell, Loyal Tidwell, Gracie Cannon and brother-in-law, James Slaughter.

Those left to cherish his memory is his loving wife, Mrs. Loretha Tidwell of Centerville, Tennessee, sons, Anthony (Katherine) Tidwell of Burns, Tennessee, Jamie (Mary) Tidwell of Pleasantville, Tennessee, Danny Tidwell (Rose Parrish) of Dickson, Tennessee, grandson Harvill Tidwell of Lyles, Tennessee, and his dear sister Mrs. Betty (Emerson) Potts of Primm Springs, Tennessee.

Above all, Carl was a proud and devoted father. His greatest joy in life was raising his sons, whom he loved beyond measure.

“ I have many memories driving Carl and Loretha back and forth to medical appointments. He was such a sweet man! By far my favorite memory though was when I officiated their wedding. I've never seen two people more made for each other! My heart goes out to Loretha and to all of his surviving family! Rest in peace Carl!
