

Carrie Lynn Tate

March 5, 1963 - July 4, 2020

Carrie Lynn Tate was born on March 5, 1963, in Dickson, Tennessee and passed away on July 4, 2020, in Dickson, Tennessee. She was 57 years old.

She is the daughter of Wallace Lee Warren and Lera Alice Allen Warren.

She was preceded in death by her father, and her brother Mark Warren.

She is survived by her mother. Her husband Ronald Tate. Sons Johnathan Bradley "Brad" Tate and Ryan Tate. Grandson Keelan Tate. Father in Law William Tate. Brothers and Sisters Richard Warren (Frances), Gail Sullivan (Rufus), Reba England (Dwight), Jeff Warren, and Eddie Warren. Brother and Sister in Laws Wendy Cunningham and her daughters Katie (Kameron) Hall and Aimee (Daniel Sadoski), and Buddy Tate (Angie). A whole bunch of nieces and nephews. Along with many other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

Carrie was full of life. She was hard-working, and that was the only way she knew how to work was hard. Whether it be at her many titles and jobs she held at Shiloh Industries or out in the yard mowing and weed-eating, she gave 110% at everything she did. This carried over into all other aspects of her life. She was not one to ever ask for anything, and was always willing and wanting to work for what she had.

Carrie was crowned Ms. Hickman county during her high school days. The outgoing never met a stranger attitude that she has probably had a lot to do with that. Along with that Carrie was also a firecracker and a fighter who was not afraid of anything or anyone.

She loved music. It was not uncommon to find her singing loudly her favorite gospel or country songs. She was not afraid to insist that you would join in, even if you did not want to. One of her favorite bands was Aerosmith, and Steven Tyler was her man.

She was a photographer. She spent many hours taking photos of nature. Birds and flowers particularly. She would drive the backroads for hours looking for wildflowers and wildlife to take home through her pictures.

Carrie also loved her family. She was her grandson Keelan's #1 fan, his personal photographer, a personal cheerleader, and a choreographer. She was all about being a grandmother. She will be deeply missed by all those she knew and loved.

Chad Sullivan and Shirley Goins will officiate services.

“ Carrie was my cousin, and I didn't know her as well as I would like to have. I called upon her to look in on my mother, her aunt, who will be 90 in August. She, without hesitation and after working a very hard day, agreed to do that after work. She said that she would do anything for anybody who needed her. Her christ-like spirit so impressed me about her. She truly was an amazing person and a great loss to this family and to to her world full of friends. People like Carrie don't come along very often, and I truly do honor this amazing woman. And so does my mother, Irene Ross. She said she wished she could make her be alive again. Thank you, Carrie, you were a blessing to us!

“ I can't remember a time in our childhood that you weren't there as far back as I can remember Carrie you were there beautiful and so happy no matter what we were doing or where we were going your smile could light up a room and could settle the nervousnes I had as we started to sing in front of very large crowds until I see you again I will carry you in my heart I love you

“ Carrie and I went to school together she was a year behind me and she and I were in the Miss Hickman County beauty pageant at the same time. For 20 something years we worked at Shiloh, Ind. together. Carrie was always smiling and laughing and she talked about her friends and family a great deal. She will most definitely be missed!❤️

“ I had the pleasure of working and becoming friends with Carrie at Shiloh. She worked hard, always was helpful and was the type person who remembered birthdays and made them special, decorated for holidays, brought flowers in just because. She would lend an ear or give you a hand, whatever you needed. I know she loved her family and friends dearly and will be missed terribly by many. RIP Carrie, you were a good friend to me and I will never forget that or you!

Growing up you would come get me and Lindsey and let us stay the night with you. Singing in the car and having fun together. Family get togethers you always brought love and laughter to anything. No one could ask for a better Aunt; you was the best!! I will forever hold a special place in my heart for you and miss you always. Prayers for Uncle Ronnie, Brad, Ryan and family. I love you!!*
