“ I met my cousin Charles and his wife Levern at my grandmother's house. We sat on the porch and talked about music. I sang a Judd's song for Charles to hear. We then took photos near my granny's beautiful flowers. It was nice getting to know them both.

“ How sad that the world has lost this great Christian man! From teaching me so much, for instance how to drive and how to shoot a gun plus always making sure I got to go to the Smokey Mountains every year when I was growing up. He sure did love his "Lou" and I pray she has strength and peace to deal with her loss. Love to them all!, Michelle (Wee wee)
