Tribute Wall

“ We lived next door to the Gilbert family when I was about three years old. My Daddy and Tom were best of friends. Charles was the first friend I remember having. Charles' Mom used to have a picture of Charles sitting on his tricycle with me standing beside him I was about three, Charles was about five years old...Love to have copy of that picture...Charles was a fine man from a fine family.

“ To those interested. A special Charles Gilbert Burial Fund has been set up at Community First Bank in Centerville, Tn.

Charles was a self employed man with no insurance. He leaves behind a wife and a special needs daughter.

Any help you can give this family would be greatly appreciated.

Judy Matlock, Charles's sister is trustee for this account.

Please make checks to:

*Judy Matlock and mail to 1881 Grays Bend Road
Centerville, Tn. 37033*

Or of course you can make direct deposits to the Charles Gilbert Burial Fund at the Community First Bank, Centerville, Tn.

Because the funeral had to be so quick and many did not know about it, this will give those that knew Charles a chance to do something nice for him.

Thank you so much for your generosity.
