“ I can't drive by his neighborhood without wanting to stop in for cappuccino. I miss my friend. Random phone calls during the day just to tell me how life in the animal kingdom was. Random text messages to tell me I was special. Chris was one of the most opinionated and outspoken people I ever met. He was real. Thank you Brandon for letting me be there at the hospital. Your Dad was very proud of you. I'll always treasure my Birthday dinner at Red Lobster. The trip to Noah's Ark. The Christmas lights. Ice cream. 4th of July.

“ I'll always remember Christopher as a little boy....with his suit on, looking so sharp....he always wanted everything , clothes, hair just right....just like great grandpa McCauley....sharp dresser....and he always had his bible in his hands or under his arm.....and he knew his scriptures too....he always made us laugh too.....about any situation.....he was an amazing father, something he always wanted was a family.....he deeply loved his children, grand children..he talks about them with great pride.....so sad he had to go ..we will always keep him in our hearts.....”
