“ I remember when Clevon was moving some stumps for us and I was cutting dirt out of them with a hatchet, well, needless to say I hit my leg cutting it. Christopher was watching me, guess he was about 4, took him inside to clean it up. Went back out to continue my work and I never laughed as hard as I did when Christopher looking up at me so seriously saying, "Remember I have toes down there Miss Karen." I smile everytime I think of that. My love and prayers to his dad and family.
