“ Mr. Ed was such a nice man. Every time he saw me he would ask “how are you doing young lady.” He always gave the nicest big hugs and made me feel like I was the only person around that he was speaking to. He had the best stories too. I loved him and he will be greatly missed.

“ I worked for Ed back in the mid-eighties. It was a handshake deal, and he was a man of his word. In my dealings with Ed, I conclude that there was no better man anywhere. It was an honor and pleasure to know him.
