

Claudine Morrison

November 1, 1924 - February 11, 2022

Johnnie Claudine Pinkerton Morrison was born on November 1, 1924, at her home in Briar Pond and passed away at her home in Centerville on February 11, 2022. She was 97 years old.

She was the daughter of John Pinkerton and Myrtle Shepard Pinkerton.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother Elgie Pinkerton and Sister Louise O'Guin, her long-time best friend, Ruth Reece, her husband of 54 years Ray Morrison and her son, Bobby Morrison. Along with her in death was her beloved dog and companion of 14 years LB.

She is survived by several great-nieces and nephews, her caring neighbors and friends, and her beloved and loyal caregivers.

Claudine and Ray were married on April 24, 1946, when he was at home on leave. She likes to tell the story that they married so quickly she was still wearing rollers in her hair!

She and Ray were baptized on September 10, 1960, by Bro. Paul Rogers after their son Bobby started going to VBS. She was a long-time worker at the Outreach Center getting the messenger prepared for mailing.

In her earlier years, she loved to fish, play dominos with friends, go square dancing, and ride the roads with Ruth.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Bobby Morrison Scholarship Fund at the Centerville Church of Christ.
