“Trey you are in our prayers, as are Jake and Riley. We so enjoyed reconnecting with you and Dana over the years. This is a shock to our spirits and my mother, who loved Jane and Dana. You are in our prayers.

“Dana was a terrific friend growing up in Centerville. We sat together in the College Class at church for 4 years and shared a wonderful relationship. Dr. Holiday forged the class as great fun. Dana always had a smile and kind word for every individual. She was compassionate and kind and loved everyone. We attended a Judds concert at MTSU in an early day and laughed all the way there and home. She had a wit and great charm! Dana mirrored the strengths of her mother Jane, who was also full of goodwill toward mankind. - Dana was a brilliant woman and a highly skilled and talented accountant. A gentle and tender soul. *So missed! Susan Harber

“So very sad to hear of Dana's death. She was always such a beautiful person - inside and out. While she was growing up, she and Jane would spend hours in the Shop - Jane reading Cookbooks, and Dana reading cards.

Our Sympathy to Trey, Jake and Riley. May you be comforted by beautiful memories her.
