“ Ray and I are so blessed to have Lynn and Maelynn as friends. They have welcomed us into their home numerous times and we have been together for some wild cattle adventures! Lynn did all our backhoe work and was our trusted friend and consultant when we built our house. He could always make me laugh out loud with the things he would say or the looks he would give. One time when he was doing a small concrete job for us one of his helpers was being gentle and precise with the concrete spreading. Lynn swaggered over to him and said, “Now, , that aint no baby’s butt you’re pattin’”. When he said that, I lost it!!!! We will miss him.
