Mr. Bentley, you brought the TN papers to my house for 14 mos. at 2AM. and the one time you were late it was because you had hit a deer and your car had damage.I think you were a remarkable man.

“ Sue, Carol called yesterday and told me of David's passing. I wish so much that I could be there personally and give you a hug telling you how much you and David have meant to me over so many years. Your encouragement to me as a very young Christian when I was just beginning to preach will never be forgotten. David stands out in my mind as being one of the kindest persons I have ever known. Lynn and I remember with fondness when you came to visit us in Searcy several years ago. Please know that you are in our prayers now and will continue to be in the days to come. We love you and your family.
