“ David was a great friend, and even better Superintendent. I loved his sense of humor.

I will miss our long conversations about life in general. He was a person I looked up to, and appreciated as a friend. He will be missed.

I pray God keeps his hand on Brenda, and all the family, giving them the strength to go on.

“ I'm gonna miss every sarcastic comment, every insult with love right in behind it, & every laugh he ever gave me. Uncle David was a unique character & loved by so many. Aunt Brenda my heart is with you.

“ I worked with David at Lakeview Construction for several years. He always called and made me laugh, quite a sense of humor and sarcasm on him! He really worked hard at his job, very hard. He had a way of taking time out of his day to call and shoot the breeze for a few moments. I cherished our friendship and his witty phone calls. To David's Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a great guy. I hope that you find peace in your memories of him. With Sympathy - Shanda Hess
