“ Will never forget Steve although he was older than me I always liked him. Will never forget the new black corvett his mom Virginia bought him.

“ Mr. David was one of the nicest people I've ever known. He was one of my Dads best friends as far back as I can remember. Mr. David always had a smile on his face and a nice word to say or a cool picture to draw for us. His love for Mrs. Sherry and the girls always showed. My heart hurts for them and my prayers go out for them as they lay him to rest today. Mr. David will never be forgotten and we will see him again in Heaven one day.

“ How to put into words how much I will miss Steve is like asking me to climb a mountain. He was my buddy and friend when we came down every summer to visit. If our mothers knew how much fun we had, they would have taken a switch to our behinds. Have a good trip my friend, cousin and partner in crime, save a place for me, give your mom, mine and all the others a kiss for me.

“ Remember Steve always being so witty and funny and full of life while we were all growing up in our little town of Centerville. Prayers go out to his family.

“ Steve was my buddy every summer when we came down to Centerville to visit every summer. He made the two weeks fly by and with us being the same age or at least born in the same year, we had a ball. Never thought of the square in Centerville, that I didn't smile thinking of all the things we did those summer evening. We had good clean fun as cousins, one from the south and one transplanted to the north. God bless you Steve, save a place for me up there.

It's hard to believe that almost a year has passed since we lost David. He was such a good friend to so many, always eager to serve in any way that he could. Even with his physical limitations, he was happy to do anything he could for anyone. Once, I found him in the church parking lot, polishing the headlights on the car of one of our volunteers. He enjoyed helping out in our church Food Pantry, and the clients appreciated his kindness. People like this don't come along every day, so love and appreciate them when they do. Miss you buddy, we'll see you again someday.
