“ The moment David and Marla moved into their beach home on St. George Island and became our neighbors it was an instant bond. David was such a caring and always willing to help good man. That you saw from the very beginning. He worked as hard as he could on his island home, was a master with a chain saw. He will be forever in our hearts and memories.

“ We're so sorry to hear of Daves passing. Wishing Marla and Family strength thru this time of grieving. Really respect the way Marla walked with Dave during this long illness. It's been a lot years ago but we have some very fond memories of time spent with the family down there. We wish you best, Marla. Love ya, Alan & Lisa McArthur
