“ Deb was the true face of living a life showing Jesus Christ through her daily actions! She attempted to be Christlike in her daily ways.

Christ showed through her in so many ways.

She touched hearts around the world. I sincerely believe there are times she saved lives just being there for someone. She always knew the right time and words to say. She knew just the right time to be there for others and say the right things.

This was a gift Deb had and came so naturally. I honestly don't think she ever realized all the lives she touched in such positive ways.

Deb you will be missed so very much, but I know you're with us even more now. You are loved my friend! Will see you in Heaven one day and oh what a day that will be!

I pray for her precious family that meant so very much to her. If You asked how she was doing and she'd always first tell how her family was doing. Leaving you all (if she had a choice) was the hardest thing she had to do for God as He told her "Job well done My Child!" She's with you always in your heart. You'll see something she's sent to remind you that all will be well, whether a fluttering butterfly, a Cardinal or other special bird, Even just a coin on the ground....Live your life to the fullest for her. She'll see all that brings Joy to her on earth, even in Heaven. May she see it Daily with you all. Know we have you all lifted up in prayers continuously.

God is with you all 🦋

Stay safe 🙏🇺🇸

Love and God bless ❤️ 🦋

“ Compassion is the word we think of when you hear of Deborah. Always there for anyone and everyone who needed an extra push. The leadership role is not an easy role to fulfill, positivity and generosity came natural to Deborah. The crazy part is, she may not of known the level of impact that she had in the Twitter community. Our thoughts and prayers are with her and her family during this time. Her absence is felt and she will never be forgotten, may she Rest In Peace. 🙏💙

“ Deborah, you were my best friend, my big sister, we almost always ended chats with I love you. I missed you when I wasn't there. I loved learning from you and every sweet thing you had to say, never negative, you taught me a lot, even within that short time you tried that once, haha. You will always hold a place in my heart. I know you're family always came first and how much you loved them dearly. You also may not have realized how many you affected through social media. There's thousands that wish they can still talk to you. I love you Deborah/aka Sis! You'll always be with me! Love you ❤️

“ Although not known of long, the impression was and is long lasting, as she personified the meaning of helpful, caring, genuine. May you rest in peace sweet angel here on Earth. Everyone you touched was given a blessing. You sought to do that daily as you struggled within, selflessly giving your all, even though your all was being taken piece by piece.

Rest easy, friend, and know that one glorious day, we will reunite!

“ I was shocked and heart broken to hear of Deborah's passing. She was an incredibly sweet person who radiated the love of Christ. I was so blessed to have met and befriended her on Twitter. She never said anything negative and was always unfailingly positive regardless of what was happening around her. You are much missed, dear friend! Praying for your family as they go through this difficult time.

“ You will always be a part of do many persons’ lives, because no matter where or how, you touched their hearts in great positive ways! You put a smile on all that crossed your path. I praise God we met in Twitter and became friends.

I will see you in Heaven when my work for God complete on earth. I know you are in a much greater place, but you’ll always be here on earth too. You left your precious mark on this world!

My thoughts and prayers are with all that she left behind! Live for her! That’s what she would want! Let her memories live on through you. She is always with you, right in your heart! She’s smiling down in you with so much Joy!

God is with you always!
Stay safe

“ I didn't know this beautiful soul on a personal level. But I will tell you this. I met this beautiful soul a few months ago. Whenever I'd be upset about something or had to vent about things, she would literally only offer me positive advice and she would constantly motivate me.

“ I only knew ms. Deborah on twitter but I could never forget her because of her kindness and sweetness. I also know that I may not know her personally, I am sure she is a great and loving person. Everyday, as much as she can, she spreads positivity, hope and kindness to the community. My heart broke upon hearing the news as if I know her for a long time. That’s how big of an impact she brought to many. She was a light herself.. and she will be missed. May you Rest in Peace, Deborah.
