“ I didn't know Ginny well, but I thought she was a really sweet, very unassuming little lady. I have one special memory of her that took place on Mother's Day, about 10 years ago, Chris and Carrie brought her to the Centerville Nursing Home where my mom was a resident. She and my mom were almost exactly the same age, born just days apart, so we thought it would be neat to introduce them at the Mother's Day luncheon the nursing home hosted every year. We had a dozen red roses for each of them. Ginny was so very modest when we gave her her bouquet. She smiled shyly and kept saying, "For me, these are for me?" And then, " You shouldn't have." But you could tell, she was secretly pleased. My mom is already in Heaven, so she'll be among those to welcome Ginny, I'm sure! Fly high, Ginny! The angels await you!
