

Doyce Kenneth Ray

September 22, 1953 - August 9, 2019

Doyce Kenneth Ray was born on September 22, 1953, in Chamblee, GA and passed away on August 9, 2019.

He was the son of the late Doyce Homer Ray and Ruby Jeanette Clanton Ray.

He is survived by his sisters, Brenda Thurmond of Powder Springs, GA, Rebecca Sasser of Powder Springs, GA, Theressa Morris of Newnan, GA, Linda Corbitt of LeBelle, FL, and Freddie Marie Chambers of Buchanan, GA. Many nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles. As well as many other relatives, friends, and loved ones.

Mr. Ray served in the United States Navy during the Vietnam War. He was a decorated soldier that served 2 tours.

He loved where he lived in Nunnelly. His proximity to the lakes made it easy to enjoy his favorite past time, fishing. He enjoyed catching whatever would bite. He also loved music, especially the Allman Brothers. He will be missed by his family and friends.

“ A duck walked up to a lemonade stand
And he said to the man, running the stand
"Hey! (Bum bum bum) Got any grapes?"
The man said
"No we just sell lemonade. But it's cold
And it's fresh
And it's all home-made. Can I get you
Glass?"
The duck said,
"I'll pass".
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle)
'Til the very next day.
(Bum bum bum bum ba-bada-dum)
When the duck walked up to the lemonade stand
And he said to the man running the stand,
"Hey! (Bum bum bum) Got any grapes?"
The man said,
"No, like I said yesterday
We just sell lemonade OK?
Why not give it a try?"
The duck said,
"Goodbye."good day
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away
(Waddle waddle)
'Til the very next day.
(Bum bum bum bum ba-ba-dum)
When the duck walked up to the lemonade stand
And he said to the man running the stand,
"Hey! (bum bum bum) Got any grapes?"
The man said,
Look, this is getting old.

*I mean, lemonade's all we've ever sold.
Why not give it a go?"
The duck said,
"How 'bout, no."
Then he waddled away
(Waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away
(Waddle waddle)
'Til the very next day.
(Bum bum bum bum ba-ba-dum)
When the duck walked up to the lemonade stand
And he said to the man running the stand,
"Hey! (Bum bum bum) Got any grapes?"
The man said,
"THAT'S IT!
If you don't stay away, duck,
I'll glue you to a tree and leave you there all day, stuck
So don't get to close!"
The duck said,
"Adios."
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away
(Waddle waddle)
'Til the very next day.
(Bum bum bum bum ba-ba-dum)
When the duck walked up to the lemonade stand
And he said to the man that was running the stand,
"Hey! (Bum bum bum) got any glue?"
"What"
"Got any glue?"
"No, why would I— oh!"
And one more question for you;*

*"Got any grapes?"
(Bum bum bum, bum bum bum)
And the man just stopped.
Then he started to smile.
He started to laugh.
He laughed for a while.
He said,
"Come on duck, let's walk to the store.
I'll buy you some grapes
So you won't have to ask anymore."
So they walked to the store
And the man bought some grapes.
He gave one to the duck and the duck said,
"Hmmm..No thanks. But you know what sounds good?
It would make my day.
Do you think this store
Do you think this store
Do you think this store has any lemonade?"
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away.
(Waddle waddle waddle)
Then he waddled away
(Waddle waddle)*

“ I will always hold Doyce Kenneth Ray in a very special place in my heart. Although we were married briefly from 1979-1983, we enjoyed and shared many good things together and I learned a lot from him, as he was multi-talented in many areas. I now regret that I didn't keep in touch with him during that 35 years. Doyce, I will always remember you fondly! May you rest in peace in the comforting arms of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Patricia S. Ray

“ Doyce Kenneth Ray was my big brother. He was the only boy with 5 sisters. I was the sister that would race hot wheels with him and he never let me win! He was a loner and did not like to be nagged, but I believe he knew we loved him. I wish we could go fishing together ... he's got a better fishing hole in heaven and I look forward to seeing him again one day. Love you Ken!
