“ My deepest condolences, my most heart felt prayers pour out to my Brionne, Tammy, Faith, Jason, and the entire family. Miss Edith was their heart and soul. I remember being in high school and you were either at Kita's, Connie's, or Miss Edith's.

I've been best friends with Brionne for over 10 years now. I've had the opportunity to meet and be around the family and it is filled with nothing but love. From the birthday dinners, holidays at different places to simple calls and text to one another. Bri if I could take the pain away, I'd face any storm for you, as you've done for me. Your heart ache is my heart ache.

I pray God hold each of you safe in his arms in this time of bereavement. I pray that on your worst day you look towards the hills from which your health and strength come from.

To a truly beautiful soul that has went from labor to reward, to an amazing family, to each of you that have been touched by Miss Edith's grace. God says to know she's in a better place, because she is with him. You will see her again, once you gain your wings too.

All my love,

Montez
