

Edward Gordon Hurst

November 9, 1952 - December 10, 2021

Mr. Edward Gordon Hurst, age 69, of Summertown, passed away on Friday, December 10th at VA Medical Center in Nashville. He was born on November 9, 1952 in Spartanburg, SC to the late Cleo Condred and Gertrude "Trudy" McMahan Hurst.

Mr. Hurst's passion was in theatre and music. He graduated with a masters degree in performing arts and was a professor for 10 years at Kennesaw State University & University of Southern Mississippi. In addition to being a professor, he was an avid singer, songwriter, actor and director. He was a fun loving, free spirit who barreled through life. He had a sense of humor that was contagious to all who met him.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Hurst is preceded in death by his sister, Dana Hurst Bates and his brother, Conrad Hurst.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his loving wife and partner of 17 years, Pat Hurst; his daughter, Jessica Hurst; his brother, Bob (Romana) Hurst and his many nieces, nephews and cousins.

There are currently no services planned as Mr. Hurst's wishes were to be cremated.

“ Man, this just proves that you'll do anything for a laugh. Are you gonna show up on The Grand Ole Opry now and freak everybody out? If you're really gone from this old world I'll drink a beer, listen to some John Prine, cry a little, laugh a lot remembering your jokes, and wait to see you again when Jesus comes back for us. I love you, my brother. Thank you for being Gordan. Big hug.

“ I have known Gordon and his family for many many years, he was a fun loving guy and always had a kind word to say. I will always remember the fun times we had and us going to his parents house to watch the tv show Mork and Mindy. He will be missed and my Thoughts and Prayers are with him and his family at this time.

“ I didn’t really know Gordon but when I met him I thought to myself, “What a cool old hippie; so laid back! He was the perfect balance for my dear friend, go-getter, multi-tasker Pat.” Pat, stay balanced, he’s up there in that cloud of witnesses praying and watching over you.
