“ Tinker.... I just now found out about this... :(i don't hear much living away now. You was always such a nice man and always had a big smile on your face. I am happy that god put u in my life even if it was just for a little bit. You really helped me when I was going through a rough time. I wish I had one more day with you to tell you thank you. You will be missed by many.

“ I will never forget the last time I saw u! Marv and and we're visiting from Michigan, u stopped by our hotel and saidhello, and gave me a hug! That was almost five years ago. I didn't think it would be last tine I ever saw your smiling face. I figured we would run into u again sometime. He was always nice to everyone no matter who u were. Prayers going out to his family! I know u are up in heaven smiling now! R.I.P Tinker!

“ I'll never forget Tinker--one of those "larger than life" people you only meet a few times. The worst "bluffer" I have ever seen in poker (he would grin like he had a winner when he had a terrible hand), a real hustler when he was selling cars with me in the late 90's, early 2000's, a loving father (I heard the phrase "Jake and Miles" a million times) and deep down, a caring person who I considered a good friend. He will be missed.
