

Edward Mitchell Tidwell

August 8, 1944 - July 25, 2019

Edward Mitchell Tidwell, age 74, of Bon Aqua, TN, passed away July 25, 2019.

He was born in Bon Aqua to Mitchell and Lona Tidwell on August 8, 1944.

He met the love of his life, Faye, and knew he could not live without her. They traveled to Florence, AL to get married in 1963. Soon, their family grew with the addition of two sons.

He proudly retired from the maintenance department of Vanderbilt University Medical Center as a plumber. He also owned Lyles Aluminum where he made aluminum sand castings of various items including things for Tennessee Walking Horses.

Ed never met a stranger, and everyone that crossed paths with him came away blessed. He had a smile that lit up a room and loved to make people laugh. He loved nature and enjoyed all types of animals from dogs to horses to wild turkeys and squirrels.

He was preceded in death by his parents Mitchell Tidwell and Lona Pendergrass Tidwell, and his beloved wife Virginia Faye Randolph Tidwell.

He is survived by his sons, Tracy Tidwell and Stacy (Beth) Tidwell; grandchildren Kayla (James) Sawyer, Brandon (Hailey) Tidwell, Rachel (Jordan) Clifton, Briar Tidwell, and Ashley (Cannon) Anthony; and six great-grandchildren Kailee, Bentley, Brison, Alayla, Brody, and Lila Kate.

“ Edward (Ed to us) was married to my sister Faye Randolph Tidwell for I think 44 years. My sister Faye passed away in 2006. He was like a brother to me and I am broken-hearted at his passing. He was a wonderful husband and grandfather, great grandfather and friend. A kind gentle soul. He was a member of the church of Christ. I will talk about ole times with him. He studied his Bible every night. He and Faye loved Bro. James Watkins and went riding around one day to see where the Watkins live. They were sitting on their porch so Ed and Faye rolled the window down to say hello and Mr. Watkins came out and nothing do them what they go in and have some pie and coffee. Ed told him he had many many tapes and listened to them over and over. This was one of Ed and Fax's heroes.
