“ God rest Ms. Elizabeth and C.W. Tarkington, who presided over more fun at their Tarkington Store than most little country stores ever see. All of us who joined the "Tarkington Society" will never forget the Tarkingtons. The rules had us taking off our shoes & socks, rolling up our pants and wading on sharp rocks in the cold waters of Hassell's Creek. You had to stand out there long enough to eat one of Ms. Elizabeth's bologna sandwiches. Then you raised your right hand and swore to the preservation of the Tarkington Store, friendship and eternal sophomorphism. By the time you'd done that, whatever was stressing you out before you waded into that creek, it was now a faded memory and you were smiling again. I'll forever miss those great times, and I'll miss the Tarkingtons, too! ”

“ Aunt Elizabeth was a gem who would do for anyone. As a child when my siblings and I would go see them during the summer she always wanted to give us clothes for school. Sometimes that was the only new school clothes we received. She always made us feel special and loved. She will be greatly missed and forever in our hearts.
