“ Today we laid my great grandmother to rest she made it till 94 she will forever be in my heart and the family and friends that loved her very much she had her rough days and good days just like we all go through but she always saw a brighter day even when there were bad days and today even thoe it was a sad day but it was also a happy day the family was together and thats how she always liked it was family and friends being together spending time and catching up. I hope you fly high and rest in peace granny Elsie with lots of love.

I want to thank everyone who gave thoughts for me and my family and for the friends that asked if I was ok and comfort me when I broke down in tears thank you all so much it will take time to heal but I'll be fine I'm just happy that she's no longer in pain and she's finally at rest thank you all again love you all so much.
