

Evelyn Winters

September 22, 1943 - July 24, 2025

Mary Evelyn O'Guin Winters was born on September 22, 1943, in Aetna, Tennessee, to the late John Everett and Clara Lorene Rogers O'Guin. She entered eternal rest on July 24, 2025, in Nashville, Tennessee, at the age of 81.

In addition to her parents, Evelyn was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Joe Allen Winters; her son Steven Ray Sisk, her sisters, Marie Bates, Clara Nell Brown, and Henrietta Rochelle; and her brother, Roger O'Guin.

She is survived by her sons, John Sisk, Eric Sisk, and Ashley Winters; her sisters, Rebecca Carroll, Louise O'Guin, and Marcella Breece; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Evelyn deeply loved her family and cherished all those around her. She was a talented cook, best known for her homemade vegetable soup and freshly brewed coffee. A lover of all music, she especially enjoyed Country and Elvis Presley. Evelyn found joy in simple pleasures—yard sales, thrift stores, and collecting dolls brought her great happiness.

Throughout her life, Evelyn devoted herself to the service of others, earning the admiration and respect of many as a beloved waitress. Her kindness, warmth, and unwavering friendship left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

If Evelyn was your friend, you had a true and loyal companion. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all whose lives she touched.

“ Evelyn was always such a kind and sweet spirit. She exhibited one of the best characteristics anyone can possess- a caring heart with service to others.

Her devotion to her family and her friends will always be remembered.

She was a bright spot when she visited the Town Crier Gift Shop,... she appreciated beauty...Red birds, Christmas, a little Sparkle (or a lot !) and the kindness of friends...often buying a special gift for someone special and wanting them wrapped up “ real pretty”.

A committed wife, a dedicated mother and caregiver, a dependable employee at Fish Camp, and a kind friend to so many. She will be missed, but remembered fondly.

Our Sympathy to her sisters, sons, and other family members.
