“ My husband and I were in TN to spend last Thanksgiving with Angela (our daughter) and Mike Weems (our son-in-law). We went to dinner with "Lynn" and I was admiring the beautiful scarf she was wearing, telling her my daughter-in-law in Orlando would LOVE that scarf. Immediately, Lynn removed the scarf from around her neck, folded it up and said "here, give it to her." She would not take NO for an answer. Lynn was ever thinking of others, and I'm sure our daughter-in-law will all the more treasure that scarf when she thinks of Lynn's kindness. (Georgean Himes)

“ Loving, kind and so gracious. Lynn will be missed by so many. She left a “trail of love” everywhere she went. Love you a Lynn, until we see you again.
