

Floyd "Fuzzy" Alton Martin

December 4, 1938 - March 10, 2025

Floyd "Fuzzy" Alton Martin, born on December 4, 1938, in Primm Springs, Tennessee, to the late John Homer and Mattie Gordon Martin, passed away peacefully on March 10, 2025, in Dickson, Tennessee, at the age of 86.

Fuzzy was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Floye Adell Green Martin, as well as his brothers Boyd, Hubert, Wayne, Randy, and Sewell. He is survived by his son, Teddy (Kathy) Martin; granddaughter, Tiffany Martin; great-grandson, Hudson Liam Martin; sisters, Jewell Green and Elizabeth Martin; brothers, Wallace Martin and Jerry Martin; along with numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of other family and friends.

Known for his strong work ethic, Fuzzy was a man of many talents. He took great joy in raising a large garden, sharing its bounty with others, and was skilled with his hands, able to fix almost anything that came his way. His love for the outdoors, the beauty of God's creation, and his passion for hunting and fishing were among the many things that brought him joy.

Fuzzy's presence will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His legacy of hard work, kindness, and love for family, friends and nature will live on in the hearts of those he touched.

Fuzzy will forever remain in our thoughts and prayers. He will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Martin Family.

“ Fuzzy! My family and I met Fuzzy at NHC when my mom was there in 2023/2024. She LOVED him so much. He took care of her when my dad wasn't there and we all became friends. Near the end, he could still make mom smile. He sang to her and made her eat. He saved his ice cream for her every day. We love him and will miss him. Dad went by NHC today to see him and we learned he had passed. Thinking of the family. He was special to us.

“ 37 yrs ago, before marrying Keith, I came to meet the family. Fuzzy showed me around his family farm. I saw sweet ducklings & chicks. When we came to a small ditch he stepped over it and turned to offer me his hand. My heart melted. He was the kindest of men.
