“ When I was younger we had gone out with Aunt Francis to pull grape vines, and I think Brenda was there. Can't remember if Opal, and Robert was there or not but anyway we were tying everything down getting ready to leave and I slipped and almost fell off the back of the truck, but Aunt Francis caught me and was trying to pull me back up for some reason I had started laughing about something which got aunt Francis and Brenda laughing and aunt Francis said sherry if you don't stop laughing I'm going to drop you because with every one laughing she was loosing her grip on me. But anyway all ended well. But even thinking about it now I still find myself laughing or smiling about that day
