

Frances Elizabeth Stone

October 9, 1936 - May 26, 2024

Frances Elizabeth Stone was born October 9th, 1936 to the late Emma Frances Gray and Walker B. Carothers. She was preceded in death by both her maternal and paternal sets of grandparents. She was preceded in death by her husband of 47 years, Floyd “Lil Bit” Stone, and her stepson, Anthony “Nanny” Stone. She was also preceded in death by brothers, Bobby, Billy, John, Tom, and Ray Gray and sister, Faye Gray.

Frances received her formal education in Hickman County School System at O.H. Bernard before entering the industrial workplace of Levi Strauss where she worked until her retirement and then she started her own business, Stones’ Bar-B-Que. She was a faithful member early in life at the Columbia Avenue Church of Christ and in her later years at the Fort Cooper Church of Christ until her passing.

Frances will be deeply missed by her surviving family of one daughter Shenia (Elton) Fowlkes, one stepdaughter Janice (Stephen) Breedlove, one stepson Connie (Rose) Stone, two devoted grandchildren Adam and Victoria Fowlkes, five step grandchildren Joshua and Ayanna Breedlove, Deshawn, Darius, and Dakota Stone. Two sisters Mary Gray and Sue (Leamon) Pierce. One brother, Gordon Gray. Four sisters-in-law Dorothy Vaughn, Patricia Collins, Joyce and Diane Stone. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

There will be a livestream of Mrs. Stones' service at the following link: <https://www.facebook.com/McDonaldFH/>

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Stone family.
