

Frankie Mai Rhodes

July 3, 1934 - September 18, 2024

Frankie Mai Rhodes was born in Duck River, Tennessee to the late James Frank and Fannie Mai McMeen Rhodes on July 3, 1934, and peacefully entered into eternal rest in Columbia, Tennessee on September 18, 2024, at the age of 90 years.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her sister Annie B. Rhodes, brother James Harold Rhodes and cousin J. P. McMeen. She is survived by her cousins Tommy McMeen, Shirley McMeen Jennings, and Sammy McMeen along with a host of other family and friends.

Ms. Frankie loved all people especially her family, enjoying faithfully attending the services of the church, cooking and watching and reading books about birds. She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.

McDonald Funeral Home is honored to be serving the Rhodes family.

“ We loved our Mars Hill CoC friend and neighbor. Our love will go on and find you.

(Frankie broke her hip recently and had to stay at Lifecare a while.) Our other neighbor, Frances McMeen's daughter Shirley was there as well. Faye Shudrick, Frankie has a hard time with recent memory, but she was telling us about when she got into Granny Lanes snuff and then she looked over and exclaimed, "I wonder if Faye and Bobby ever got into Granny Lanes snuff when they lived with her?" I was tickled she remembered you kids living there during the 1950s. We talked about all our other neighbors that have perished. It was a great visit. Bonnie Margrove you should get up and see her. I bet she's got lots of stories to tell about “ Frankie Mai, we are going to miss you very much. You use to tell us you wouldn't make it to 90 years old but you did. God needed another angel in heaven. We love you!
