

Freddie Roth

December 12, 1928 - February 19, 2010

Mr. Roth was born in Lewis Co., TN to the late Frederick Jacob and Gertrude Wolfe Roth. He was retired from the State Hwy. Dept. as Project Manager. He also had worked for Edwin Blocker Paving Co., Brinley Construction Co., Charles Green Construction Co., Wayne Co. Highway Dept. and Jenkins and Jenkins Construction. He was an Army Veteran having served during the Korean Conflict. Survivors include his wife, Georgia Ruth Turnbow Roth of Hohenwald; son, David Roth of Hohenwald; daughter, Sharon (Phil Oliver) Roth of Nashville; sisters, Wilma Churchwell of Hohenwald and Freda Lewis of Chattanooga; two granddaughters, Emma and Katie Oliver of Nashville. He was also preceded in death by a sister, Martha Watson.

Tribute Wall

RT

“ Ruth And Jimmy Turnbow lit a candle in memory of Freddie Roth

Ruth and Jimmy Turnbow - February 25, 2016 at 03:16 PM

TM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time. We love you all very much. Love, Tracy & Barry

Tracy Kuhlmann Mar - March 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

DM

“ Georgia, David, Sharon and Family, Freddie was such a nice man who had many friends. We always enjoyed our visists with him. He will be missed. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Love, Dot

Dorothy Oliver Mar - March 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ Sharon & Family, We are so sorry for your loss. Our thoughts are with you, the girls, and all of your family. Love, Dana & Greg

Dana - February 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM