“ Gary and Jim.....The Early years;

As neighbors growing up we shared many memories ~

\ I remember in the early 50's, we were coming back from Gary's cousins house in the country. Three dozen eggs were in the back of his Dad's old Buick, we hit a bump in the road and 3 dozen eggs ended up on Gary, Gene and ME....*

We were a gigantic omelette!

Another not to be forgotten memory, Gary talked me into going into his garage and using a large rock to pound 22 bullet shells.....not realizing we could have have easily killed each other ....whew!

Gary, Gene, Diane and I made the front page of the Columbus Dispatch ....walking on stilts!

There was a small tree farm next door to our houses. Th owner built a fire one day only to have Gary and I grow curious and started messing with it.

*The end result was 20 small shrubs went up in flames!
I blamed Gary...he blamed me.....whew...No Jail time!*

I wasn't involved in this confrontation with an alligator, but I do remember Gary sharing when we were golfing in Florida that he almost could have landed in jail over the incident!!

GREAT MEMORIES with a GREAT FRIEND, GARY ELLIOTT~ NEVER TO BE FORGOTTEN!
