“ Gary just completed the installation of a new gate control system and would not relent until every issue was resolved. I spoke with him just a few days ago and will miss his friendly demeanor. A gentle reminder of the brevity of life.
So very sorry for your loss!!!!

“ Gary will be greatly missed by all of us here at Elantra Gate Systems. He was not only a good employee but much loved as a friend. We have today received many emails from customers that knew Gary, a big outpouring of love, loving thoughts and prayers for him and his family.

John 11:25-26

25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; 26 and whoever lives by believing in me will never die.
