“ Charlotte, I am so very sorry to hear of Gary's passing. I was in his high school class at Litton. He was always so much fun and I remember him well. You and the family have my deepest sympathy and I pray God will keep you in his prayers at this difficult time.

“ Charlotte, so sorry for the passing of your dear husband, Gary. I'll never forget when we came up for your Mom & Dad's 50th, Gary came to the airport & got us, also wouldn't let us pay for a thing, bought us many meals saying our money was not any good in Tennessee.

“ My mother, Gary's Aunt Jean, loved Gary so much and used to tell my sister and I that when he was just a toddler, she always called him her "cutest, sweetest, only one!" My sister, Shari and I, as teens loved to be around him as he always entertained us with his jokes and stories! Now, I hope he's entertaining angels! Charlotte, you and all the family are in our prayers.
