“ Our deepest sympathy and condolences with the passing of our brother and friend. Gayla and I will be praying for the comfort of God's holy spirit to be with Gaylons family. He is singing and playing with the heavenly band before God's throne now. We rejoice in knowing that there's no more sickness or pain for Gaylon. It has been our honor and a blessing to have Gaylon and his family in our lives.

A man of great integrity. Never met a stranger and always gave you the truth even if it hurt but could always make it seem okay. Lets rejoice knowing Gaylon is with the one he loved so.....The Lord Jesus.
