“ I sure do miss our late night phone chats. Guess I always will. Today is your birthday.....I can't believe you would have been 90.....well I bet you would not believe I will turn 77 this year. I am still looking for that white sweet corn you always talked about.

“Wow it has been 7 years now since you left us. I am sure you know we lost our brother Jimmy in May 2020. I hope you guys are having a great time up in heaven with all the family we have lost. We have lost Bubba's wife Virginia, we have lost Mann, Terry Gilmore and of course your wife Janice. I still miss you and long to talk with you. I miss Jimmie so much and long to talk with him also. We have a pandemic in the world right now...it is a virus they are calling Covid and it has killed a lot of good people. We have a vaccine ( shot) for it and then after 6 months you get a booster shot to that. We have been quarantined at home and only allowed to go to the grocery or doctor. We wear a mask that covers our mouths and nose we can wear in hopes of protecting ourselves. I am so glad you are not here for all this, it has been a mess. I have not gotten it nor has Trent. I am retired now and loving it.

Today is your birthday and you would have been 83. Happy Birthday brother. Until we meet again.....I love you always.

“ Brother, it has been 3 years now since you left us. So much has happened in these 3 years but the one thing that has stayed constant is how much I still miss you. Sometimes my heart aches so bad I think it will burst.....I so wish that I could talk to you like we used to but I remember how sick you became and the pain you were in. Jesus came to relieve you of all that pain. Glory to God for that. It was time. I know we will be together again one day. I love you so.

“ Brother I miss you so but know that you are walking with Jesus, laughing and safe and secure in his love now. No more pain and remember when we use to wonder what Heaven would look like.....now you know and with your restored 20/20 vision I am confident that it is more beautiful than we had ever imagined. This brings me such comfort.....rest in peace now.

Until we meet again.....I love you.
