“ My beautiful Aunt Gloria. I have loved you and Uncle Hugh David from the time I was flower girl in your wedding 57 years ago until now. You were both with me during my darkest days, from losing a child until now, I so appreciate you both. I am so very proud that Mckenna was able to know and love you as I did. Whether a tornado in Brushy or someone in need, you were there. You are a true model of what a Christian lady should be! The world has been a better place because of you. My heart  is truly broken. There will never be another Aunt Gloria! Your loving niece, Letitia.
