

Mr. Guy J. Nicholson

July 15, 1927 - December 14, 2017

Mr. Guy J. Nicholson of Hohenwald passed away on Wednesday at his home. Memorial services will be conducted on Monday, December 18, at 1 p.m. at McDonald Funeral Home in Hohenwald. Sam Livingston will officiate.

Born in Lyles, TN, Hickman Co. in 1927, he later moved to Lewis County. He was the son of A. B. Nicholson, Sr. and Genieve Joyce Nicholson. He had one sister, Mary Nell, and three brothers, A.B. Nicholson, Jr., Robert Nicholson, and Harold Nicholson; all preceded him in death.

After graduation from high school, he volunteered for the U.S. Navy. He was honorably discharged. He then married Ramona Defoe and they had two children, three grandchildren, and four great grandchildren. Their son, Donald, lives in White House, TN, with his wife, Trisha, and their two children, Matthew and Emily. Their daughter, Amy, lives in Hohenwald with her son, Kyle, and his wife, Leah, and their four children, Kylie, Marley, Haze and Baker.

In 1949, he was employed with the state. During his time he worked from trooper to captain and retired in 1975 with 25 years of service. He worked at Hohenwald Bank and Trust until 1982. In 1983, he was elected mayor of Hohenwald and served five consecutive terms. He retired in 2003. He was a member of the Flatrock Church of Christ. He was a 50+ year member of the Hohenwald Masonic Lodge, a Shriner, and a lifetime membership in the American Legion.

“ So sorry to hear about Captain Nicholson passing. I first met him when I was a State Trooper on the THP Tactical Squad in the early 70's and was on assignment in the Kingsport District. He always looked sharp in the uniform and was a Good District Captain. May God comfort you and your family's heart's as only he can in times like this.
